Miss Betty Lou Sell, Adams County firemen's queen, scheduled to crown the McSherrystown queen, was assisted by Miss Genevieve Blatt, Pennsylvania secretary of internal affairs, who made a surprise visit to McSherrystown for the bicentennial. Miss Blatt was presented with a dish showing a map of McSherrystown, designed for sale during the observance. She told the audience of approximately 1,000 that the dish "will be proudly displayed in my office at Harrisburg."

Approximately 250 took part in the pageant directed by the John B. Rodgers Co. Material for the pageant was taken from the history of McSherrystown compiled by Earl and Ruth Wallace Topper.

The "Lancers" Drum and Bugle Corps of the Hanover American Legion Post 14 entertained the audience prior to the coronation of the queen and the pageant. Among numbers presented were "The Sound of Music," "Moon River," and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The first presentation of fireworks—to be a nightly feature—took place following the pageant.

Swim contests and games at Walters pool and street dancing at the Moose parking lot were other features of Tuesday's program.

Today will be "Hi-Neighbor" day for the bicentennial. A special pilgrimage and Mass will be held at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart, Conewago Chapel, at 8 o'clock this evening with the Rt. Rev. John Bolen as celebrant. At 8 o'clock the Delone High School Band will present a concert preceding the second performance of "The McSherrystown Story." NATO Nonaggression Pact With Warsaw Treaty Group Creates Thorny Talk Issue

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—As East-West negotiations go, the recent conclusion of a limited nuclear test ban treaty with the Soviet Union was a breeze. The next round won't be so easy.

Premier Khrushchev's insistent call for an East-West nonaggression treaty seems certain to provide the central issue in negotiations at the next stage.

The problem of finding out how the United States should approach those negotiations and what Khrushchev wants to accomplish in them is being explored by Secretary of State Dean Rusk in talks with top Soviet leaders in Moscow this week.

KHRUSHCHEV CLEAR

Khrushchev has made his main point clear. At the signing of the test ban pact Monday in Moscow he declared that "the next step, in our opinion, should be to conclude a nonaggression pact between the member states of NATO and the states belonging to the Warsaw Treaty."

While the United States position on his proposal is publicly flexible, American leaders undoubtedly are

The governor said: "As a result of an investigation made under my direction, it appears that the damage and destruction wrought upon certain industrial and business properties within the said area will necessitate the closing of certain places of employment until they can be rebuilt, repaired, and put back into operation, with a consequent unemployment of numerous persons."

Rebel Invaders Move To Sever North Coast Area Of Haiti; Army Deserts

By BERNARD DIEDERICH
SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Gen. Leon Canave was reported leading his Haitian rebel invaders in a south-west thrust beyond Cap Haitien today, apparently trying to cut off the north coast and northwest part of the Negro republic.

President Francois Duvalier airlifted at least 150 soldiers from Port Au Prince over the rebel lines to the vicinity of Cap Haitien. Associated Press correspondent Robert Berrellez reported from the Haitian capital.

The approximately 500 invaders, their ranks reportedly swelled by Haitian army deserters, were said to be advancing in two columns after apparently deciding against storming Cap Haitien, 90 miles north of Port Au Prince.

2ND GROUP HANDS

An unconfirmed report said another rebel force had landed at St. Marc, a port about 40 miles northwest of Port Au Prince and

ST. JOSEPH'S TEN-YEAR PLAN IS UNDER WAY

Construction of a new 150-student residence hall is under way at St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, the first project in a 10-year program of expansion envisioned by the college authorities.

Of modified modern architecture to blend with existing structures, the new residence hall will feature TV, study, laundry and vending rooms, a counselor's office, and telephone booths on each of the three floors. An elevator is included in building plans.

The rooms will be double rooms, equipped with built-in desks and chests of drawers.

Plans are also progressing for the erection of the new science building, for which a Maryland State grant of $750,000 was received last spring. The science hall will include air conditioning, an arena type auditorium with built-in visual aid equipment and lecture demonstration tables; chemistry, microbiology, and a plant research laboratories. There will also be instrumentation rooms, cold and warm animal rooms, a terrarium and an aquarium, mechanical control of equipment in the physics lecture room for the lecturer's desk, general and faculty offices and lounges, and extra classroom space.

The new residence hall is being erected on the front campus along the main entrance and west of the Student Union.

SEEK DIVORCES

NEW FEATURES TO HIGHLIGHT HARVEST TOUR

Sunday, October 13, was chosen Tuesday evening as the date for the annual Apple Harvest Festival sponsored by the Fruitgrowers Association of Adams County.

Plans for the event were arranged at a meeting of the committee in charge, headed for the third year by Donald Trostle, in the Arendtsville National Bank.

As in the past, signs will be placed along the roads through the fruit belt marking them as part of the "Apple Harvest Tour," and the South Mountain Fairgrounds will be the headquarters for the event.

PLAN HAY RIDES

A special event at the fairgrounds this year will be hay rides "for children of all ages." The queens and their courts on duty at the fairgrounds will serve as hostesses for the hay rides and the youngsters taking the trip will be presented with an apple or balloon at the conclusion of the rides.

Members of the committee in discussing the hay ride plans said the program is an experiment this year. If it proves popular and practical, hayrides through some of the orchards will be attempted at the 1964 Apple Harvest festival.

An apple pie baking contest will also be a new feature this year. The contest will be divided into three divisions based on age. The first will be open to youngsters under 14 years of age, the second to those 14 to 20 and the third for those over 20. A champion will be named in each division and a grand champion will be selected from among the three divisional winners. Prizes will be awarded for various placings and the prize winning apple pies will be auctioned off at the fairgrounds during the festival period October 13. Present plans call for part of the judging to take place Saturday, October 12.

TURKEY FEATURED

Turkey will be the featured food at the fairgrounds October 13, a change from the chicken featured in prior years. Barbecued turkey sandwiches, cold turkey, apple sauce, etc., will be served, with a lunch type meal planned rather than the dinner type served during the apple blossom festival.

The tour will visit orchards and packing houses.

At the fairgrounds packer displays of apples will be shown. Cider will be given away. The queen and court will be on hand to welcome visitors. Apple butter will be boiled to demonstrate the old-fashioned method of making the apple butter in open kettles.

The committee is seeking a small old-fashioned type cider press with the hope that some cider can actually be made at the fairgrounds as part of the observance.

Marshall Turkey, representing the Gettysburg Travel Council at the meeting, promised the support of the council in promoting the event.

THREE AUTOS IN COLLISION

Joan McSherry, 20, of 105 Carlisle St., New Oxford, suffered a laceration of the right eye this morning at 2:15 o'clock when her car left the highway and collided with two parked vehicles near Cross Keys.

State police, who estimated damage in the accident at $1,500, said the New Oxford woman did not seek medical care for the relatively slight injury.

According to the officers, the McSherry car was headed north on the Hanover-Carlisle Rd., four miles north of Hanover, when it was apparently forced off the highway by a southbound car near Cross Keys.

The vehicle struck a truck owned by Carroll E. Utz, 47, Hanover R. 5, parked off the east term of the highway and drove the truck into a parked car also owned by Utz.

Damage was estimated at $800 to the 1957 McSherry car, $200 to the truck and $500 to Utz's 1961 sedan.

BAILED FOR COURT

John J. Miller, Hanover St., was lodged in the Adams County jail for several hours this morning after borough police arrested him at 5 o'clock on a nonsupport warrant filed before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder by Shirley A. Miller, Chambersburg St. Miller was released later in the morning after he furnished $500 bail for appearance in the next term of court.

KENNEDY GOES TO JOIN WIFE IN HOSPITAL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy, expecting a third child, is going to the hospital at Otis Air Force Base near Hyannis, Mass., the White House announced today. The President is flying to join her.

There were no details in the announcement.

Presidential Press Secretary Pierre Salinger suddenly summoned a small group of newsmen to accompany the President. He explained that the President was flying immediately to Cape Cod because his wife was going to the hospital.

EXPECTED LATER

The third Kennedy child had not been expected until late this month. Mrs. Kennedy's second baby, John Jr., now 2½, arrived prematurely on Nov. 25, 1960.

At that time, Kennedy was president-elect and had started back for his temporary headquarters at Palm Beach, Fla., after having Thanksgiving dinner here with Mrs. Kennedy.

He received word upon his arrival at Palm Beach that Mrs. Kennedy had gone to the hospital here, and immediately boarded another plane and flew back, arriving after the birth.

OFFICERS SEEK TERRORIST

HALLANDALE, Fla. (AP) — Armed officers are maintaining a dusk-to-dawn patrol between the Negro and white sections of this southeast Florida coastal city, terrorized by a series of rapes.

Mayor John D. Steele said "a state of panic" exists and that the Negro section will be sealed off all night until the rapist is caught.

Three white women reported they were raped by a Negro in their homes during the past two weeks, and there were two other attempted rapes. Either other rapes and numerous attempts have been reported in recent months. The latest rape occurred Tuesday morning.

"He's a sick animal," the mayor said. "Let's pray to God we get him."

Steele added that his action was not taken against Negroes as a race.

"There are just as many sick animals in the white race as in the Negro race," he said.

U.S. CIVIL WAR GROUP REPORTS ON LOCAL FETE

The August edition of the national Civil War Centennial Commission, "100 Years After," reports the following on the centennial observance in Gettysburg:

"July, 1963, will rank as one of the most active periods in the five-year commemoration of the Civil War. Highlighting the many centennial observances of this past month were large-scale programs held simultaneously at Gettysburg and Vicksburg.

"The elaborate ceremonies at Gettysburg received nationwide attention and praise. Only July 1, eight governors and 18 official representatives of state executives joined Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania in placing wreaths at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial. Also on the program was Postmaster General J. Edward Day, who officially issued the Gettysburg 'Civil War Centennial' commemorative stamp. Assistant Secretary of the Interior John A. Carver Jr. accepted deeds to tracts of land which such patriotic groups as the Military Order of the Loyal Legion and the Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association have obtained in their efforts to protect the entire battlefield site.

GIGANTIC PARADE

"On the following day some 35,000 persons lined the streets of Gettysburg to view a gigantic parade. The theme of the three-hour display was 'Strength Through Unity'. The climax of the Gettysburg program came on July 3, when 600 'Confederate soldiers' and 500 'Federal troops' recreated Pickett's charge. Noted actor Walter Abel was narrator for the event.

"The South Carolina Commission dedicated a new monument near the site of Kershaw's attack on July 2, and rededication services took place at the Virginia, North Carolina, New Jersey and other monuments. Throughout the three-day program, groups of actors performed 'Vignettes of History' at various locales on the battlefield."

CHLORINE GAS LEAKS INTO A MILK PLANT

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Chlorine gas leaked from a filter cylinder in a Pittsburgh milk plant today. Several firemen and employees were hospitalized.

The choking fumes leaked in the Otto Milk Co. in the Strip district and routed some 50 employees. Police said there were no homes in the immediate area and there were no reports of residents being sickened.

Two firemen and four employees were taken to two hospitals. Of these, two firemen and two employees were detained for further treatment.

The fumes broke out about 1:15 a.m.

Police said the situation was "pretty well under control" about two hours after the fumes broke out.

HOLD ALL MILK

The Allegheny County health department ordered all the milk to be held for inspection.

Hospital authorities reported Fire Capt. Ollie Letzkus, 72, was the most seriously affected. He was detained at St. Francis Hospital as were Otto employees Charles Taylor, 26; and Robert Staley, 42; both of Pittsburgh.

All three were given oxygen treatment, hospital authorities said. Another employee, Earl Walters, 48, of Pittsburgh, was treated at St. Francis for a burning of the eyes and was released.

One fireman, Paul Roesch, 48, of Pittsburgh, was detained in satisfactory condition at West Penn Hospital. An Otto employee, Joseph Greiber, 54, of Pittsburgh, was treated and released.

Police and firemen converged on the six-story building. They immediately blocked off all traffic but lifted this restriction about 3 a.m.

Police said the leak occurred on the first floor and drifted to the upper levels. They said the leak developed in a one-inch pipe.

British Unveil New Hard-hitting Tank

The Chieftain has a 120-millimeter gun as main armament and can run on all types of fuel.

"In my view it is at least five years ahead of any other tank available to NATO," said Maj. Gen. W.M. Hutton, director-general of fighting vehicles.

GIRL PROMISES NEW EVIDENCE

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Stephen Ward's last girl friend said today she will give Lord Denning sensational new evidence in Britain's sex and security scandal.

"I received Stephen's last letter to me last night," said 22-year-old Julie Gulliver. "I can't say anything about it yet."

"But I intend to see Lord Denning this week with some new evidence that will be sensational."

Denning, a judge, is investigating security aspects of the affairs Ward's protegee, call girl Christine Keeler, carried on simultaneously with former War Minister John D. Profumo and assistant Soviet naval attaché Eugene Ivanov. Profumo resigned June 4 from Parliament and the government in disgrace. Ivanov returned to Moscow before the scandal broke.

Ward, convicted on two vice charges last week, died Saturday from an overdose of drugs. He told friends he was being made the scapegoat of the scandal that rocked Prime Minister Macmillan's government.

MISSIONARIES SPEAK SUNDAY

REV. AND MRS. MAZE

Rev. and Mrs. Larry Maze, missionaries from Bolivia, South America, will speak at the 9:45 and 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services Sunday at the Gettysburg Bible Church, Harrisburg Rd.

The Mazes are graduates of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, and are veterans of about 30 years missionary service in Bolivia. Their work has been among the Quechua Indians on high Andean plateau. When they first entered their particular area, there were no Christians within a 50-mile radius. Now there are about eight organized churches with a number of other groups meeting to study the Bible.

They represent the Bolivian Indian Mission, Plainfield, N.J., and will show various curios and colored slides after the evening service. The public is invited.

LOBBYISTS AIM FOR VICTORY IN CIVIL RIGHTS

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lobbyists for civil rights legislation redoubled their efforts today upon being told that "victory is in sight." But it was acknowledged that the votes to get a "meaningful" bill through Congress are far from clinched.

Delegates to a strategy conference called by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People scheduled a round of conferences with Congress members.

Speaking to the conference Tuesday night, Victor Reuther acknowledged that a "larger number of converts" is needed, but said "we can see the light of victory."

Reuther is executive assistant to his brother Walter, president of the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers. Walter Reuther was to be the speaker but was delayed in getting here.

The great problem is how to get a bill past the expected Senate filibuster by Southerners. Clamping down on the filibuster would require a two-thirds majority—67 if all 100 senators voted.

SEES 60 VOTES
"The way I count votes," said Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., "I think we've got 60 right now. Assuming the full membership is on the floor, we'll need seven more."

But Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., said he is "always more pessimistic than many of my friends" on mustering votes to end a filibuster.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., told NAACP delegates: "Anybody who says Republicans cannot be counted upon to help is not telling the truth." He figured that about one-third of the 33 Republican senators are firmly committed to all of President Kennedy's bill "and more too." Another third are against it, he said, and one third are undecided.

Scott remarked that no Republican in living memory has filibustered.

Man's Body Found Tied In Blanket

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—The body of a man tied in a blanket was found today in an abandoned coal stripping, three miles east of this Carbon County community.

No identification was immediately available.

State police said two men found the body off Route 29, in water in a three-foot hole between two railroad tracks.

The feet of the victim were tied with clothesline. Police said the man might have been murdered Tuesday night and tossed into the stripping.

HISTORIANS

largement of the county library had been salvaged by him and are now in possession of the historical society.

Olinger and others said the small building could have been moved "for perhaps about $1,000" and saved as a memento of the county's past. It served as a "female academy" before the foundation of the local college and seminary and had some connections with the founding of those institutions. It served numerous purposes over the years, including the "well baby clinic" of 40 years or more ago; as a school during WPA days in the 1930s, as Red Cross headquarters for many years and as the first location of the Adams County Day Care Center.

SWEENEY BUILDING

Noting also the anticipated loss of the Sweeney building, at the corner of Baltimore and South Sts., pockmarked with Civil War battle bullets, the members of the society held that they should redouble efforts to try to encourage the saving of historical structures, or at least make arrangements to save some portion of the structures for future display.

Olinger said the front doorway and its frame from the historic Christ Church near Littlestown, now being demolished, was removed from the structure and taken to the Old Dorm on the seminary campus—the historical society headquarters—for ultimate display.

As chairman of the committee in charge of restoration and museum development for the society, Olinger reported all rooms are now wired for electricity at Old Dorm, that the Hill room is "about completed" and that work is progressing on a room depicting an early school in the country and another room depicting weaving.

VISIT CHURCH

Led by President Dr. Charles Glatfelter, the society visited first the area of St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church, built in Buchanan Valley in 1817, with its tower constructed in 1895, and the statue of Mary Jemison, captured from the Buchanan Valley area by Indians in 1758. The statue was placed in June 1923 by the Rev. Fr. Will Whalen, then pastor at the church.

A visit was made to the graveyard of the church where graves dating back to 1834 were discovered.

The tour then proceeded to the Mt. Calvary EUB Church (Sheely's Church) near Cashtown. In the Sheely plot of the cemetery the historians noted that an epidemic must have been raging in the country in 1869 with Jacob Sheely, aged 51, dying April 2, 1869; his eight-year-old daughter, Mary Ann, on October 23, 1869, and his 12-year-old son, Eli, on December 10, 1869.

The apparent progress of an epidemic in 1862 was even more graphically shown on tombstones in a row in the Chamberlin Cemetery between Orrtanna and Mt. Carmel, the last stopping point on the tour. The tombstones listed the demise of Lavina Daywalt, 13, October 26, 1862; Polly Daywalt, 24, November 4, 1862; Isaiah Daywalt, 17, November 10, 1862; Susan Rife, 21, November 16, 1862; her 10-day-old daughter, November 19, 1862; Elsy Daywalt, December 30, 1862.

to permit renovation and painting of the first floor of the structure. Reports at Tuesday's meeting showed the renovation work moving along swiftly, with volunteer labor and with paint donated by Gettysburg Building Supply. Painting was reported as about two-thirds completed. Carpenters are scheduled to spend another evening of work there tonight.

TARGET DATE

Plans call for the work to be completed August 30 when a grand reopening will be held for all youths of the county and others interested in viewing the remodeled structure.

Containers have been placed in various local business places seeking donations toward the Youth Center, according to reports at the meeting.

The board decided not to hold a meeting next Tuesday night.

The Haitian government radio warned Americans to pull out of the war zone, but the approximately 20 American families on sisal plantations near Phaeton were believed in no immediate danger.

Tourists Visit Battlefield: There were 13,264 visitors to the Gettysburg National cemetery and battlefield during the last week, C. L. Nett, superintendent of the cemetery, revealed today. On Sunday there were 4193 tourists over the field, his figures disclosed.

Littlestown Petition For Sewer: Petitions which will soon be presented to the Littlestown borough council asking that body to take necessary steps for the installation of a sanitary sewer system and a sewage disposal plant in the lower county borough were placed in circulation Tuesday evening following a public meeting in St. Aloysius Hall. First signers were secured Tuesday evening to the papers which recommended to council that non-debt revenue bonds be issued by the borough to pay the town's share of the cost of a government project for the building of the sewer system and treatment plant. T. C. McSherry, president of the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce, presided over the meeting which was sponsored jointly by the Chamber and the borough council.

Reformed Choir Outing: The junior choir of Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church held its annual picnic at the farm of Mrs. Harvey B. Hoffman, last Friday. The Rev. H. S. Fox, Mrs. John Teeter Jr., and Mrs. Hoffman were in charge of the sports of the day. A wiener roast at the close of the day brought the program to its end. Among those present were: Emma Rachel Scott, Ann Raffensperger, Anne Louise and Marion Jennings, Milton and Daniel Hoffman, Harold Zinn, Betty, Dixie and Jack Moser, Ida Moore, Emma Lower, Jean Harner, Doris Kitzmiller, Ruth Warman, Betty Ann Lippy, Jane, George and Edgar Raffensperger, Betty and Nancy Teeter.

Razing Of Vet's Camp Today: Today, a month after the old soldiers of the North and South left their quarters in the 75th anniversary camp here, the last of the freight cars bearing camp materials and equipment were being loaded for shipment to Army depots in this and nearby states. The last of the 171 cars will be loaded and ready for shipment by this evening. One hundred sixty-one railroad cars loaded with canvas, tent frames, floors, sections of board walk, pipe, wire, lumber and every bit of usable camp equipment already have left Gettysburg by rail. Five others were ready to move by midday and the loading of the others was fast being finished. Major Mark and his office personnel expect to leave Gettysburg next Wednesday for Indianopolis Gap. On that day the administration office, a small temporary frame building near the end of West Lincoln Ave., will be razed. The force of workmen which had reached a peak of 973 persons now has dwindled to 65. First to arrive here on April 6 to start the erection of the various camps. Major Marks will be among the last to leave next Wednesday when his task is complete.

Dr. Fischer Reported Serious: The condition of Dr. M. Hadwin Fischer, member of the faculty of the Lutheran Theological Seminary here and director of Camp Nakawka, was described as "still serious" this afternoon at the West Side Sanitarium, York. He was rushed there in the Adams County ambulance Wednesday night after he had been taken seriously ill at the Lutheran training camp near Brysonia.

Today's Talk

THE WRITTEN LETTER

Rather than to read the autobiography of a man or woman, I would prefer to read the letters they have written across the years. A person is off parade when he writes a letter. He opens the gates of his personality and lets himself out.

I cannot enthuse over the novels of Henry James, but I like his published letters. A Shaw letter reads like a preface to himself. And D. H. Lawrence wrote letters that read as fascinatingly as his novel, Vincent. I have read books on Vincent Van Gogh — but his published letters have told me as to what manner of man he really was.

Charles Lamb wrote letters that sparkle with the same genius as do his essays. There is an intimacy in them, however, that his essays do not reach. There have been a dozen or more books written about Emily Dickinson, the elusive American mystical poet, yet none reveal and unfold her personality as do the two volumes of her letters published long ago.

I once purchased, at auction, a long letter by W. H. Hudson, the naturalist, written to another famous writer friend. In it he opened his heart and wrote a wonderful tribute to his mother. Frequently I take it from its hiding place and re-read it. As my fingers touch its pages I fancy a lingering love still warm from those written words.

How we prize the letters from those whom we greatly admire or love. They seem too precious to destroy and so we keep them — and go silently to them for our still, lonely moments.

Next to the sound of the human voice of a friend is a letter from that friend. As you look at the formed words you think of the fingers that moved in their formation and of the mind and heart that centered their thought upon them, breathing into the silent waves between the miles of separation, unuttered words — too full for expression. Like those letters from a mother's heart, or those from a passionate love.

No matter how the world may change, human nature will forever remain unaltered, and letters will continue to reveal it from heart to heart.

Just Folks

OBSERVATIONS
Strange things I've seen along life's way,
But here I set it down
I've never seen a loofer who
Was honored by his town.

I've never known a boss to praise
The boy or man who shirked,
I've never seen a goal achieved
By one who hasn't worked.

We talk of luck and fortune's smile,
But lessons must be learned.
A grindstone cannot sharpen knives
Unless the wheel is turned.

Behind the beauty we admire,
The lovely things we see
Are hours and hours of irksome toil
Ere such delights could be.

And when I find a well-trimmed lawn
As down the street I pass,
I know some able-bodied man
Gets out and cuts the grass.

All the enthusiasm for his mad solo flight from New York to Dublin was let loose in a continuous roar that dinned upon his ears from the Battery to city hall. The imperturbable Corrigan grinned, just as he had grinned earlier in his hotel suite when he insisted anew he had made an honest mistake in flying to Ireland instead of to California.

Jennie Was Baking Biscuits: Two persons who took prominent parts in the erection and dedication of the Jennie Wade Monument in Evergreen cemetery were visitors in Gettysburg Friday. Mrs. Joseph Worker and daughter, Elsie, of Chicago, who were enroute to Philadelphia to visit Mrs. Worker's son, visited the Jennie Wade Museum and monument and other places of interest. Mrs. Worker is credited with conceiving the idea of erecting a monument to the only Gettysburg woman to lose her life during the battle of Gettysburg. She is said to be well informed on the history of Jennie Wade and she told a Times reporter that the Gettysburg heroine was baking biscuits, rather than bread, when she was fatally wounded. Mrs. McClellan and a two-day-old daughter were taking refuge in the cellar of the home when the shooting occurred. Jennie Wade's body was taken to the cellar and the next

TENNIS COACH
SAYS U.S. CAN BEAT MEXICO

By JIM NEWSOM
Associated Press Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—United States Davis Cup team coach Pancho Gonzales thinks the United States has a good chance of taking the American zone semifinal match with Mexico 5-0.

He said today he spent one afternoon correcting a trouble which might have otherwise proved serious—a twist in Dennis Ralston's serve.

"I have been practicing right along with Ralston for a week or so, and Monday I noticed he was kind of twisted around while serving his curve," Gonzales said.

"In his position he was opening the racket face incorrectly, and he was trying to serve with a minimum swing. I wanted him to get a longer swing, so he could develop a rhythm."

When asked how close he came to coaching the Mexican team last year, Gonzales said:

"Pretty darn close, probably because I've always had a strong feeling for Mexican teams and I'm a Mexican. But the fact that I live in America and have played Davis Cup competition for America had something to do with my decision to coach the U.S. team."

"Now," Gonzales said, "there is a little added incentive, because Mexico took us last year when I was the U.S. coach, and I welcome the opportunity to try to even the score. Plus, I feel that the United States has the best team in the world and I would like to be with them all the way when they bring the cup home."

500 Job Trainees
Launch Work Plan

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — About 500 trainees will begin a program aimed at placing 5,000 persons into existing job openings within the next 12 months.

The program to start Sept. 1 is sponsored by the Chamber of Greater Philadelphia.

The executive vice president of the chamber, Keeton Arnett, said more than $2,500,000 from federal and state funds would be utilized in the first stage of the program alone. He said the program would combine resources of the area's industries and businesses with those of the federal and state governments.

The program will operate under the U.S. Manpower Development and Training Act, with a goal set of 100 per cent placement of trainees.

'PERRY MASON' HAS CONFLICT IN FALL SERIES

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The door burst open and in rushed Perry Mason. He took one look, knelt quickly and tested the fallen man's wrist as a voice in the next room said, "Call a doctor."

"No need for a doctor," said Perry.

"Print it," called the director, using the motion picture phrase indicating that no re-takes would be necessary.

That's the merry murderous way things go as "Perry Mason" starts its seventh—and probably last—season on CBS.

After years during which cast and behind-the-scenes personnel have remained pretty much intact, the operation runs like the proverbial watch. More often than not, regulars Raymond Burr, William Tallman, Barbara Hale and William Hopper go through rehearsals and then the scene is filmed, just once.

Producer Gail Patrick Jackson, once a film star herself, is sorry that prospects for another season are dim. But she is more concerned that CBS has pushed the show back an hour on Thursday to 9 p.m.

Last season the show did quite well starting at 8 p.m., which gave it a half-hour's jump on NBC's popular "Dr. Kildare." A lot of viewers, including this one, soon learned that it was pretty easy to watch the whole legal show on CBS and then switch over for the last half of "Kildare." The medical plot lines could be picked up and the climax was easily understood.

Come fall, however, Mason starts half way through Kildare. And if six years experience watching Mason is a qualification, I would say that it would be almost impossible to start watching at its half way point. Its plots are tightly knit, usually very complicated and involve a number of characters. Sometimes the viewer can lose the thread of an episode by merely leaving his set for a drink of water.

Waiting in the wings is another Erle Stanley Gardner project, based on his books about Donald Lam and Bertha Cool, private eyes.

UNION TO SHOW JOB EQUALITY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia trades unions have 60 days to prove their apprentice programs are nondiscriminatory or suffer decertification.

The U.S. Department of Labor issued the ultimatum Tuesday.

Decertification, it explained, would result in no work being permitted by apprentices on any projects involving federal funds, which would include many major building projects.

Joseph D. Doan, area supervisor of the Department of Labor's bureau of apprenticeship and training, presented union officials with itemized requirements for proving their nondiscrimination in apprentice selection.

The four unions accused of being discriminatory by the Commission on Human Relations are: Sheetmetal Workers Local 19, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 98, Steamfitters Local 420 and Roofers Local 30.

MAYS KEEPS 'FRISCO IN TITLE RACE

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

He may have been a weakling Willie for a while, but there's no doubt that he's once again the magnificent Mays.

Willie admitted at All-Star Game time that he was pretty weakling about his sub-par .271 batting average, far below his .315 lifetime mark and one of his poorest half-year showings in the majors.

But the San Francisco Giant centerfielder in the last few weeks has been the Mays of old. At the moment he's in one of his periodic batting binges, with a 10-game streak in which he's batting .400.

That spurt has boosted his average to .290 and has helped keep the Giants in the running in the National League.

HAD 3 HITS

Willie had three hits, including a triple, and scored once Tuesday in the Giants' 3-1 victory over Houston, which kept them in a tie with St. Louis for second place, five games back of leading Los Angeles.

The Dodgers kept their lead with a 4-1 triumph over the Chicago Cubs. St. Louis held off New York's Mets 4-3, Pittsburgh blanked Milwaukee 3-0 and Cincinnati and Philadelphia split the Reds winning the first 6-4 in 10 innings and the Phillies the nightcap 7-1.

Mays' three-hit performance against the Colts gave him six hits in the last two games and 18 for 45 in his current streak. In that stretch, he has scored 13 runs driven in 11 and had two doubles, two triples and six homers, boosting his season total to 28.

COLTS STOPPED

Jim Duffalo, 4-0, stopped the Colts on six hits, but needed the sharp relief help of Don Larsen in the ninth.

Shortstop Maury Wills stroked four straight hits, including a double in leading the Dodgers over the Cubs. Don Drysdale won his 14th.

St. Louis had 11 hits, but had to work hard to stand off the Mets, who were down 4-1 but scrambled back. The Cards scored their first run on a fielders choice when Stan Musial beat a throw to first on a potential double play grounder and their second on a wild pitch. The third was set up by a wild pitch and the fourth was moved into position by a base on balls.

SP Twilight Games Tonight; Leaders Here

The final scheduled set of twilight games in the South Penn Baseball League are listed for this evening when all 12 teams will be in action.

Gettysburg, which has been having trouble lately in fielding full teams, will meet Arentsville, leaders in the second half race, on the local field at the Recreation Park.

Other games tonight include Taneytown at Brushtown, Littlestown at Mummaburg, Bonneauville at McSherrystown, Cashtown at Fairfield and Harney at New Oxford.

MAUCH GIVEN NEW CONTRACT BY PHILLIES

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"It was the furthest thing from my mind," said Gene Mauch of his new two-year contract as manager of the young Philadelphia Phillies.

Mauch was summoned in uniform, from the clubhouse by the Phillies' general manager, John Quinn.

Quinn handed the 37-year-old Californian a contract through the 1965 season, and although the terms were not disclosed, Mauch is believed to be in the $40,000 category.

"I'm proud of the fact that owner Bob Carpenter and Quinn think there has been some progress and it's going to get progressively better and I'm the guy they want to be around while it happens," said Mauch.

FIERCE PRIDE

A man of fierce pride, Mauch also is very matter of fact about things. As one man put it, if Gene were elected President he'd probably say, "Nice."

Mauch agreed with an observation that his Phillies came to life the hard way, after losing a doubleheader to the hapless New York Mets in the Polo Grounds June 23.

Observed Mauch, "It's the same as with an individual hitter. Sometimes he has to hit the bottom of the barrel before he starts going good. We started playing better after losing those two to the Mets."

WIN 27 OF 40

Since that date the Phillies have won 27 of 40 games and have moved from eighth place to sixth, a game out of the first division. In some quarters they are considered a pennant contender.

Mauch explained he is particularly pleased with his new tenure because the Phillies are a young team, improving each year.

Mauch took over as manager of the Phillies in the third game of the 1960 season after Eddie Sawyer resigned. The Phillies finished last in 1960 and 1961.

The Phillies last year posted the winningest record in the major leagues through the final six weeks of the season, advancing from the cellar to seventh place and earning Mauch National League Manager of the Year honors.

N.O.-Gettysburg In L.L. Tourney Battle Tonight

After winning two straight ball games, the New Oxford All-Stars will be out to survive tonight's 6 o'clock clash with the Gettysburg Little League on the Gettysburg Little League diamond. A large crowd is expected to be on hand to see which team represents the loser's bracket in the championship game against Cone-wago.

New Oxford will probably start its ace hurler Dave Lawrence while Manager Paul Toddes will probably send Randy Phil to the mound for Gettysburg. New Oxford is 2-1 and Gettysburg is 1-1 in the third annual double elimination tourney.

LISTON-CLAY TITLE FIGHT FACES DELAY

NEW YORK (AP)—Representatives of heavyweight champion

Sonny Liston and Cassius Clay, and maybe even the "Ugly Bear" and "The Greatest" in person, will meet in New York tonight to discuss a title fight for September, or more likely, next year.

There also was talk of a home television fight in December between Liston and Ernie Terrell, the young, tall contender from Chicago, in Las Vegas, Nev.

Liston, peeved because a tax-saving corporation gimmick was thumbed down by Pennsylvania authorities, supposedly is no longer interested in taking on the unbeaten Clay this year.

TIME IS SHORT

While the ballyhoo drums beat in all directions for a fight the brawny champion predicts will require no more than a round or so, sources close to the situation point out there is hardly enough time left to stage a big closed circuit television promotion in September.

It also was stressed that Liston made about $250,000 for his 130 seconds of work in disposing of Floyd Patterson July 22 at Las Vegas and would be working just for the government if he fights again this year.

Liston's lawyer, Salvatore J. Avena, confirmed this in Philadelphia. "As far as I'm concerned any prospects for the fight here Sept. 30 is in the twilight zone," said Avena. "Time is running out and unless something decisive develops in the next few days there will not be a fight."

"It's not that Sonny doesn't want to fight in Philadelphia. He does. But his position tax-wise makes it impossible for him to do it."

Fairfield Little League

The Yankees pounded out 11 hits to roll to an easy 14-2 win over the Pirates Tuesday evening on the Little League diamond.

Jeff Seifert paced the winner's attack with a pair of doubles and two singles for five trips to the plate. The Pirates helped the Yankees on several occasions with some wild throwing errors.

Barry Lobingier and Roger Harbaugh combined to toss a three-hitter against the Pirates. Two of the Pirates' three safeties came in the fifth frame when the losers tallied both of their runs.

On Saturday afternoon the Fairfield Little League All Stars will travel to Blue Ridge Summit to meet the Blue Ridge All Stars. League officials also announced that a return game will be played at Fairfield on Thursday evening, August 15.

A Living Legend:

Glamorous Maharani, India's Big Votegetter, Considered Goddess

EDITOR'S NOTE: Daughter of one wealthy maharajah and wife of another, she was a popular member of the International Set and famous for her exotic beauty. But suddenly she went into politics, won a smashing victory and is working to lower taxes. What is this paradoxical practitioner really like?

By DORIS KLEIN

JAIPUR, India (AP) — It was just another Sunday afternoon at the Rajasthan Polo Club.

From her canopy-shaded pavilion, Gayatri Devi, the maharani of Jaipur, kept one eye on the ponies, flicked her slipping sari over her head and cadged a cigarette from a guest.

"This isn't like the polo we once had," she reminisced, casting a critical eye on contenders for the low handicap fortnightly cup. "It used to be quite an event, every week."

The kids of Jaipur crowded the fence around the field. When the match ended, they mobbed the pavilion, grinning, waving, trying to touch the maharani's robes. She smiled back, patted a few heads, then swept into the prize-giving enclosure. The maharani was anxious to store up a few more votes for the next election.

OVERWHELMS PEOPLE

A favorite playmate in the International Set, she won election by a landslide last year to the lower house of India's parliament.

In impoverished India, the maharani is a standout.

She campaigned in jewels, dark glasses, flowing silk saris and a jeep — and overwhelmed her opponents.

"They thought of her as half goddess," recalls an Indian newsman. "She glamorized the people. When she traveled, a whole retinue went with her."

But the maharani told me: "I just campaigned like you would in the United States. The people just expected me to take care of them — just like the princes of Jaipur have been doing for centuries."

WHITE HOPE OF PARTY

Whatever the reason, the maharani's vote was the largest of any candidate in the election. Yet nationwide, her party, the right-wing Swatantra, picked up only five per cent of the vote.

That achievement made her the white hope of the Swatantra, a 2-year-old party whose leaders claim they are trying to establish a loyal opposition to the dominant Congress Party.

Swatantra's opponents sneer that it is a collection of disgruntled ex-members of the Congress Party and of maharajahs longing for their lost power.

Whoever is right, no one denies that Swatantra is the only party in India — or the world — whose leading vote-getter once was named one of the 10 most beautiful women in the world.

At 44, she's a Hollywood version of a maharani. Her brown eyes are upturned by some long-forgotten Mongolian ancestor. She wears her hair in a shoulder-length bob that she tosses back with royal hauteur. And her figure is strictly Ava Gardner.

TALKS POLITICS

Swathed in a pale blue sari, she dragged on a cigarette recently in her study at the palace and talked politics.

Above the fireplace, was a full length portrait — of her. On a small table nearby, was a photograph of a couple of friends, Jack and Jacqueline Kennedy, with the affectionate inscription: "To Jai and Aisha."

Mrs. Kennedy was their guest when she visited India last year. Why doesn't the maharani just spend her time with her interesting friends?

"There was such a lot of corruption in the ruling (Congress) party," she said. "When they

INTEGRATED SHOW FOLDS FIRST NIGHT

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—An integrated variety show, which kicked up a controversy before it ever came to town, ended abruptly Monday night when part of a makeshift stage collapsed.

Negro singer Johnny Mathis was in mid-song when about one-fourth of the platform crumpled and the lights went out during a civil rights fund-raising performance by members of the American Guild of Variety Artists.

Murmurs of concern rose from the large crowd, which included about 100 white persons.

"What's happened? What's going on?" some asked, perhaps thinking of racial troubles which rocked this Southern city in April and May.

Two spectators were treated for injuries.

OUTDOOR PLAY

The show was held at the football field of Miles College, a privately endowed Negro institution.

AGVA had tried to engage the Municipal Auditorium, but gave up after a heated exchange of telegrams with city officials. The city said the auditorium was not available because it was being renovated.

The platform appeared sturdy enough to hold the performers and bands, but was apparently strained under the added weight of some spectators who sat on the edge.

Relatively little confusion followed the collapse. There was a full moon and many in the audience started to leave when it appeared the lights would be out for some time.

One of the performers began to play a piano to soothe ruffled nerves.

LOPEZ, Pa. (AP) — Fire destroyed the Sull-Penn Wood factory, a wood products and furniture concern, in this Sullivan County community Monday.

Three fire companies prevented the spread of flames to neighboring homes. There was no estimate of damage.

5 Go To Peru To Scale Rugged Peak

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—Five Pennsylvanians left here last week to try and scale the unconquered Cordillera Blanca Mountains of Peru—rugged peaks that reach over 20,000 feet into the sky.

Joseph D. Ruddle, 49, general secretary of the Easton-Phillipsburg area YMCA, mapped the expedition.

With Ruddle went petroleum engineer Steve Colbeck, Presbyterian Minister Paul Graham, educator Ivan Kirak, and architect Lawrence Wolfe, all of Pittsburgh.

Asks Early Probe Of Plane Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., has urged the Senate's Commerce Committee to hasten its inquiry into a jet plane crash at Willow Grove, Pa., Naval Air Station last month in view of a similar accident there Sunday.

Scott's letter to committee chairman Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., called for an inquiry of the safety rules and regulations involved.

Scott said requested reports have not yet been received from the Navy and Federal Aviation Agency on last month's crash into a recreation area near the air station, which killed eight.

In Sunday's crash, in which the pilot, Capt. Terrance C. Alderson of Hackensack, N.J., was killed, Scott called for detailed reports to be sent with the "utmost urgency."

WEIS STORES FACE

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP) — Negro leaders from Harrisburg planned to meet here today with officials of Weis Markets, Inc., to discuss what the Negroes called job discrimination by the firm.

The NAACP had indicated over the weekend that it intended to set up pickets at the firm's stores in Harrisburg, but the picketing was called off pending outcome of the meeting.

Weis operates a chain of super markets in central Pennsylvania.

VISCOSE SALE BECOMES FINAL

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—FMC Corp.'s purchase of American Viscose Corp. for $116 million has been announced by officials of the two companies.

The purchase agreement, entered into last January, was completed Monday after the justice department lost a battle to prevent the transaction, claiming it violated the Clayton Antitrust Act.

Under the agreement FMC acquires American Viscose's business and operating assets, including plants, accounts receivable, inventories and a one-half interest in Avison Corp., a polypropylene manufacturer, and in Ketchikan Pulp Co., a wood pulp supplier.

Not included, however, and retained by American Viscose are all common shares it owns of Monsanto Chemical Co., bonds and commercial paper and accrued interest held by American Viscose, and all claims for income tax refunds which may be recoverable, and certain other cash items.

FMC assumed the liabilities and most of the contractual obligations of American Viscose.

Dainty Customer Lifts $275 Wig

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The trim little brunette said she was a guest at the hotel, so the operators of the beauty shop proceeded to give her a $20 hair-do.

When, neatly coiffured, she then asked to take a $275 wig to show her husband before she bought it, the beauty shop manager agreed. Especially when the dainty customer insisted on leaving her own purse as security.

Later, when the customer failed to return, the manager, Mrs. Norma Clarke, decided to look closer at the purse's contents. They proved to be miscellaneous papers and a hotel ash tray.

The hotel said it had no guests corresponding to the description Miss Clarke gave of a woman about 30, 100 pounds and wearing either a new permanent or a page boy wig.

News Briefs

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Richard Headlee of Bountiful, Utah, president of the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, said Monday that Jaycees should fight discrimination on the local level.

Headlee, in a message to Jaycee presidents in 50 states and the District of Columbia, urged individual chapters to work at "seeking out and eliminating any unfair racial situation which may be purported to exist."

MONTGOMERY, Pa. (AP)—The borough council of this Lycoming County community elected Charles A. Ellis as mayor Monday night to fill out the unexpired two-year term of Raymond Taylor, who is moving away. Both men are Democrats.

Dewey's Flagship Near Receivership

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Common Pleas Judge Leo Weinrott, who claims he is "trying to avoid having a receivership named for a national shrine," says his court will decide who's running the financial affairs of Admiral Dewey's flagship, the Olympia.

Weinrott ordered cancellation Monday of a meeting of the Cruiser Olympia Association, Inc., to discuss the financial condition of the ship, which is involved in receivership action.

The receivership was asked Sept. 1961 by the Keystone Drydock and Ship Repair Co. At that time, Keystone charged the Cruiser Olympia Association's unpaid bills amounted to $237,083.

Weinrott said Monday "those people who called the meeting were disobeying the order of the court."

CLUB HOLDS
LAST MEETING

LITTLESTOWN — The Littlestown Home Economics 4-H Club held its final meeting of the season Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Gaynelle Ritter, Glenwyn Drive. The opening 4-H pledge was led by Anna Mayers, president. Susan Mayers told the club about the 4-H day camp which she attended last Tuesday at the South Mountain Fairgrounds, near Arendtsville.

A district demonstration was given by Barbara Muller. Anna Mayers presented a demonstration entitled "The Good Egg." She will enter the state competition to be held at Pennsylvania State University on Aug. 13. The club divided into two groups. The older members prepared a chicken barbecue supper and the young members completed work on bureau scarfs, laundry bags and wastebaskets.

David Lockner, president, presided and led the 4-H pledge at the August meeting of the Mason and Dixon 4-H Club held at the Ralph Unger cottage, near town, on Monday evening. Margaret Leese gave the secretary's report and Edward Benschel gave the Senate report. It was announced that those members planning to attend the 4-H Round-up at the South Mountain Fairgrounds on Friday, Aug. 16, will leave at 8 a.m. from the Unger cottage. Carolyn Brown, a former member, who had been staying at Children's Seashore House, Atlantic City, for the past year, was welcomed back into the club.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Preliminary plans were made for the club to hold a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Feeser, Hanover R. 1. The committee in charge of arrangements includes: Jane Feeser and Ned Benschel, co-chairmen, Alvin Unger, Dave Cool, Carolyn Brown and Pat Thomas. At the close of business, a group game was conducted by Alvin Unger and group singing was led by Donna Willow.

The committee in charge of the program comprises: Yvonne Unger, Beverly Willow, Donna Dickinsons, Rebecca Geiselman, Susan Feeser, Edward Clouser and Adam Lockner.

A total of $52 was contributed to the Muscular Dystrophy Fund by 12 local youngsters. This amount was the proceeds realized from a three-day carnival held by the boys and girls last week. Thanks have been expressed to those who donated to the project and who patronized the affair.

LITTLESTOWN—A family picnic will be held by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Mason and Dixon Memorial VFW Post at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the Earl J. Weaver cottage, near East Berlin. Each family is asked to take table service and a covered dish. Meat and rolls will be furnished.

SENATE OKAYS PAY HIKE FOR ARMED FORCES

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has approved unanimously a pay raise for practically everyone in the armed forces except recruits, apprentice seamen and privates with less than two years service.

The measure, which would increase military payrolls more than $1.2 billion a year, goes to the House, which has passed a similar but slightly less generous bill.

Usually a Senate-House conference committee works out differences between similar bills. But Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., who steered the pay raise through the Senate Tuesday by an 84-0 vote, said he hopes a conference will not be necessary this time and that the House will accept the Senate bill.

UP TO VINSON

The decision on what the House will do probably rests with Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, who rules with a firm hand.

The Senate and House bills would provide increases to most active duty personnel, to reservists and National Guardsmen and to those drawing military retirement pay.

The Senate version would cost $1,227,330,000 a year, about $5 million more than that of the House.

The increases—the first since 1958—would begin Oct. 1 under the Senate bill.

HIKES UP TO $120

Under the Senate bill, enlisted men would get boosts of $5 to $120 monthly. Raises for officers would range from $60 to $120 monthly.

The Senate and House bills would provide similar increases for the U.S. Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey and Public Health Service, which base their pay on military schedules. This would cost the taxpayers an additional $30,084,000 annually.

Both would provide the largest dollar and percentage raises for lieutenants, captains, majors and lieutenant colonels among officers and corporals, sergeants and other skilled technicians in the enlisted grades.

OTHERS AFFECTED

But the Senate bill would apply some of these boosts to young officers and noncoms with less than two years service and give them larger increases at times in their careers when they face the decision of re-enlisting or returning to civilian life.

The House version would limit pay increases to active personnel with more than two years service. Its theory was that many short-termers are merely serving out an obligation resulting from the draft.

Approved for the first time by both Senate and House is an extra $55 a month for any officer or enlisted man on cold war duty who is subject to enemy fire or similar hazard in such places as Viet Nam and South Korea.

A Lovelier
You

By MARY SUE MILLER

TAKE THE WEIGHT OFF YOUR FEET. You can always tell when a woman's feet hurt. Her reluctant step and pained expression are dead giveaways. She looks for the world like a cat on a hot tin roof.

There is a difference, though. The cat can get out of the dilemma in one leap. The lady has to creep the whole, agonizing way, all the while wishing she could take off her shoes.

Actually footwear is often unjustly blamed for aching feet. Of course, when shoes are improperly chosen and fitted, all manner of torture follows. But a wearer has only herself to blame.

Other than giddy footwear, there are several common causes of distress. Some feet are overly tender, owing to muscular weakness. Too, some women carry more weight than the strongest feet could support in comfort.

In such instances the feet tire easily and begin to hurt. Shoes pinch, however well-fitted. Those who suffer the condition can find temporary relief in hot Epsom salt soaks. Lying down with the feet propped higher than the head is another help.

The measure that brings permanent results is taking off that excess weight, or strengthening those muscles, or both. Effective strengthening routine follows:

Barefoot, sit with knees crossed. "Count" with toes of elevated foot—point each toe downward in turn. Repeat 10 times. At first some toes may not budge, but the try is what matters. Next stretch elevated foot downward, clench toes, hold, relax and repeat 10 times. Then recross knees and work with the other foot.

CLUES TO GOOD CARRIAGE

For a lovelier figure, walk with the grace that nature intended! To check or improve on your ability, send for "CLUES TO GOOD CARRIAGE," my leaflet giving complete instructions on shoes, stockings and walking techniques that enhance both carriage and legline. Write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope, and five cents in coin.

Exemption Ruled
For Nursing Homes

HARRISBURG (AP)—Commonwealth court says proprietary nursing homes are exempt from the 1961 minimum wage law.

Any attempt to apply the law to such nursing homes would be a violation of both the state and federal constitutions, Judge R. Dixon Herman said Monday in an opinion.

Herman issued a permanent injunction to bar the state Labor and Industry Department from enforcing the law in regard to proprietary homes. The law was challenged on grounds it distinguished between proprietary and non-profit nursing homes in application of the $1 an hour minimum wage requirement.

Herman ruled that the employer-employee relationship is the same in the proprietary as well as non-profit nursing homes. Consequently, he said, the two cannot be separated in application of the law.

CARLISLE FAIR
OPENS MONDAY

CARLISLE—Monday will mark the beginning of the most spectacular annual event in Cumberland County with the opening of the 19th annual Carlisle Fair which starts officially at 2 p.m. on Monday and runs until midnight Saturday.

Paul W. Snyder, president of the nonprofit Carlisle Fair Association, said that there will be something doing to keep the public entertained every minute. The entertainment is designed to please all, young and old, city or country.

Snyder added that there will be an array of shows on the midway, featuring a combination of the Penn Premier and the Keystone State shows. There will also be a large display of exhibits including livestock, home products, fruit and vegetable crops, grain crops, 4-H, FFA, FHA and merchants from as far away as Philadelphia who will be displaying their wares.

For harness racing fans, the schedule should be appealing. The more than $39,000 Hanover-Hempt stakes has attracted some of the finest horse flesh and drivers in the nation. These famed drivers will include Stanley Dancer and his brothers, Harold and Vernon, Sander Russell and Billy Haughton.

The Stoney Roberts Thrill Show will open the grandstand attractions with its appearance at 8 p.m. on Monday. The Roberts show is reported to be one of the best shows of its type in the country.

Music lovers will hear three vocal groups Tuesday.

STOCKHOLM (AP)—A record 35 nations, including the United States and Russia, have entered the world weightlifting championships in Stockholm Sept. 7-13.

Food prices have risen less in the past 15 years than most other things. Since 1947-49, retail prices of farm foods have gone up only 13 per cent, while non-food living costs have climbed 31 per cent.

HIGHLIGHTS OF NUCLEAR TEST TREATY

MOSCOW (AP)—Textual highlights of the partial nuclear test ban treaty signed Monday:

The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union proclaiming as their principal aim the speediest possible achievement of an agreement on general and complete disarmament under strict international control in accordance with the objectives of the United Nations which would put an end to the armaments race and eliminate the incentive to the production and testing of all kinds of weapons, including nuclear weapons.

Seeking to achieve the discontinuance of all test explosions of nuclear weapons for all time, determined to continue negotiations to this end, and desiring to put an end to the contamination of man's environment by radioactive substances,

Have agreed as follows:

1. Each of the parties to this treaty undertakes to prohibit, to prevent and not to carry out any nuclear weapon test explosion or any other nuclear explosion at any place under its jurisdiction or control;

A. In the atmosphere, beyond its limits, including outer space, or under water including territorial waters or high seas; or

B. In any other environment if such explosion causes radioactive debris to be present outside the territorial limits of the state under whose jurisdiction or control such explosion is conducted.

2. Each of the parties to this treaty undertakes furthermore to refrain from causing, encouraging or in any way participating in the carrying out of any nuclear weapon test explosion or any other nuclear explosion anywhere which would take place in any of the environments described, or have the effect referred to.

1. Any party may propose amendments to this treaty.

2. Any amendment to this treaty must be approved by a majority of the votes of all the parties to this treaty, including the votes of all the original parties.

1. This treaty shall be open to all states for signature.

2. This treaty will be subject to ratification by signatory states.

1. This treaty shall be of unlimited duration.

2. Each party shall, in exercising its national sovereignty, have the right to withdraw from the treaty if it decides that extraordinary events, related to the subject matter of the treaty, have jeopardized the supreme interests of its country.

EGG OUTPUT OFF 3 PER CENT

Egg production in Pennsylvania for the first half of 1963 was down nearly three per cent from the first half of 1962, according to the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service. In the same period egg production for the whole United States dropped one per cent.

The decline was in keeping with a 69-egg drop in U. S. per capita consumption since 1951. Even the population expansion hasn't been able to make up the difference.

PCRS said Pennsylvania's lowered egg production reflects a decrease in number of layers. Chickens raised on farms, excluding commercial broilers, were estimated at 14.9 millions—five per cent below the first half of 1962 and 21 per cent under the 1957-61 average.

Layers on farms in June totaled 12.7 million—four per cent under June a year ago. The half-year average was down two per cent. Only 31 per cent were pullets over three months but not yet in production. This compared to 37 per cent a year earlier.

Egg-type chicks hatched January to July were down four per cent.

Seasonal declines in egg settings and chick placements were registered in the state's broiler industry during the week ended July 27, according to the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service. Chick placements were eight per cent less than the previous week, and 14 per cent less than a year ago. Egg settings, six per cent less than the previous week, were the same as a year ago. Similar declines were recorded in the nation's 22 broiler producing states.

MORE BARLEY AND OAT SEEDS

Increased supplies of Pennsylvania certified seed of winter barley and winter oats will be available this season, the State Department of Agriculture indicated today.

Winter barley acreage approved for certification is up 12 per cent over last year, according to C. F. Campbell, in charge of the certification program in the department's Bureau of Plant Industry. A total of 1,519 acres was approved for 16 growers.

Only 239 acres, smallest number in four years, were rejected, Campbell said. "Loose smut infection was not so bad as first feared," he explained.

Also approved for certification were 56 acres of winter oats, an increase of 27 per cent over last year.

A total of 375 acres of registered seed—that from which certified seed will be produced later—also was approved. This included 157 acres of barley and 10 acres of oats in the Registered I class, and 208 acres of barley in the Registered II class.

As part of the certification program, inspectors also examined 58 combines for other crop and weed seeds. These could contaminate the seed crop being harvested and result in rejection, Campbell said.

World Briefs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Communist guerrillas raided a hamlet of Montagnards—mountain tribesmen—in South Viet Nam's central highlands Tuesday and captured 91 tribesmen, the Vietnamese government reported today.

The government said 20 Montagnards returned to the fortified hamlet, one of many established under a U.S.-Vietnamese program to swing primitive tribes to President Ngo Dinh Diem's government.

The guerrillas burned seven houses and took away 41 water buffalo.

The government also reported its planes killed 40 guerrillas who made an unsuccessful attack on a military outpost in the Mekong Delta Sunday night. U.S. military authorities could not confirm the claim.

HONG KONG (AP)—American turncoat Lowell D. Skinner plans to leave Thursday for the United States.

Skinner booked a flight for Tokyo, where he will catch another plane (Northwest Airlines) that is expected in New York Friday morning. He said he would stop over in New York before going to his home in Akron, Ohio.

The 32-year-old former U.S. Army corporal came to Hong Kong last week after nine years in Red China. He said he was disillusioned with Chinese communism.

He was among 21 American war prisoners who refused repatriation after the Korean armistice in 1953.

Skinner said two turncoats still in China also have decided to leave. He said they were Scott L. Rush of Marietta, Ohio, and Albert C. Belhomme of Ashland, Pa.

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Indian government has received reports that a number of Chinese Communist military officers were seen recently in East Pakistan, a spokesman for the Foreign Ministry said today.

The Indian government has recently expressed fear of a possible Chinese-Pakistani alignment against India.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Workers have begun constructing housing settlements for the refugees of Skopje, devastated by an earthquake that took more than 1,000 lives July 26.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE
Friday, August 16, 1963
1:30 O'clock P.M.

On the above date at the premises located on the Country Club Rd., 1/2 mile from Waynesboro, the undersigned will offer for sale at public auction a productive farm property containing about 59 acres. This real estate is bisected by a small stream and is ideally suited for subdivision and development, farming, or as a country estate. It is improved by an 11-room, 2 1/2-story brick dwelling house with slate roof, 2 1/2 baths, oil-fired heating system, stone summer kitchen, milkhouse, bank barn and tile silo. The property is connected to the Waynesboro water system. The house is suited for use as a single-family dwelling or rental as three apartments. This land fronts on a macadam road and is known as the Herman Hess farm.

The property will be offered for sale in three tracts: Tract No. 1, containing the house, barn and outbuildings with about four acres; Tract No. 2, being a tract lying north of the barn fronting about 500 feet on the westernmost edge of the Country Club Rd. and being about 200 feet in depth; Tract No. 3, being the balance of the farm land containing about 50 acres.

These three tracts will then be offered separately and first as a unit.

Terms: 10% down and the balance on or before September 16, 1963. Other terms to be made known day of sale.

TEST TREATY COULD BRING ECONOMY GAIN

By Sam Dawson
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Signing of the nuclear test ban treaty may give some defense industries pause but could mean stepped up activities in others.

So many strong spots are reported elsewhere that the business world seems largely expectant of an increased, if moderate, gain in the total economy after Labor Day.

The treaty still has a long road to go in the U.S. Senate. And the skepticism expressed by many Americans as to the reliability of Russian promises could assure increased spending in forms of defense untouched by the treaty—to be ready just in case, and to meet pressure in other forms of the cold war.

TOTAL DISARMAMENT

Total disarmament—with its cancellation of defense orders—isn't a factor yet in any but the most long-range economic planning.

Defense Department appropriations aren't involved in any important degree, at least at present.

Rising government spending as a whole, however, is a sure thing.

BOLSTER ECONOMY

Corporation economists as a whole, are counting on this as one of the factors sure to bolster the economy in coming months.

The spending is going up at state and local levels as well as federal—as many taxpayers are well aware.

Even more important is the continuing large outpourings from consumers' purses and a moderate, but reassuring, rise in business spending for new equipment and plants.

PAY DIVIDENDS

Such outlays by business in recent years are now paying dividends, as the current reports of increased profits show.

The new equipment is turning out more goods per man hour, thus cutting production costs fast.

Hersh Threatening Point Leadership

MECHANICSBURG — With his third straight victory neatly tucked away, Bobby Hersh, Glen Rock, has started his belated "towards the top of the point standings in modified action at Grove Speedway.

Overall, Hersh has won five features but the last three have been the most important. Three weeks ago he was way down the 330 points. Since that time he has picked up an even 400 points including the 200 for last Friday's midseason championship win, a double point affair.

While Hersh continues his climb, Tobias continues to salt a little bit more to his point lead. Finishing second, Friday was good for 190 points and gave him a total of 1,400 for the year, 290 more than the number two man, Leroy Felty, Jonestown, who finished fourth.

The assault on the point leader continues this Friday when the modifieds resume their regular weekly program. The green drops promptly at 8:30 p.m. for the first of three qualifying heats.

Sunday night, starting at 8, the United Racing Club sprint cars make their first appearance for the year at the Grove. It will be the annual Lucky Lux Memorial race. Heading the list of entries are Earl Halaquist, Bob Court-right, Chuck Yost, Jimmy Maguire, Bill Brown, Don Gillete and a host more.

ter than wage scales have been rising.

ECONOMISTS WORRY

Some economists worry about the stretching of payment periods in some areas, but most consider the credit gains on a firm basis.

Instalment debt has become a much-watched indicator of consumer psychology. It goes up when confidence is widespread. And consumer confidence is basic to economic growth.

With consumer, business and government spending all tending to rise, the outlook for the fall months is bright.

TREATY READY FOR SENATORS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said Tuesday President Kennedy plans to send secretary to fix regulations for the specification of grass varieties on seed labels.

the nuclear test ban treaty to the Senate this week, probably Thursday, and hearings on it will begin Monday.

Mansfield reported the schedule after he and other Democratic congressional leaders had their weekly White House breakfast.

He said the plan is for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to hear State Department witnesses Monday, Defense Department witnesses Tuesday and Atomic Energy Commission witnesses Wednesday.

Mansfield said the Foreign Relations Committee, headed by Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., will give expeditious consideration to the treaty.

Fulbright was among six senators who witnessed the formal signing of the treaty in Moscow Monday.

House Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said the leadership told Kennedy the tax bill is going along very fast in the House Ways and Means Committee.
